

‘Targets, Tissues and Trials’

You are cordially invited to a
Translational Cancer Research Seminar with International Guest Speakers:

Prof. Lajos Pusztai, Dr. Constance Albarracin, Prof. Donald A. Berry

Chaired by Dr. Cathy Kelly, Consultant Oncologist, Mater Misericordiae University Hospital

Date: Thursday 13th October 2011

Time: 6.00 - 8.30pm

Location: Herbert Park Hotel, Ballsbridge, Dublin 4

Presentation:

6pm “Discovery and evaluation of gene expression-based predictors of response to therapy”

Prof. Lajos Pusztai, MD, DPhil, Medical Oncologist & Lead of the Pharmacogenomic Program, Department of Breast Medical Oncology, M.D. Anderson Cancer Center, Houston, Texas, USA

6.40pm “Getting the biomarker to clinic: Identification, Validation and Image Analysis using immunohistochemical platforms”

Dr. Constance Albarracin, MD, Ph.D, Consultant Pathologist, Department of Pathology, University of Texas M.D. Anderson Cancer Center, Houston Texas, USA

7.20pm “The target, the drug, the patient, the dose: Adaptive Clinical Trial Designs”

Prof. Donald A. Berry, Ph.D, Department of Biostatistics of the University of Texas M.D. Anderson Cancer Center, Faculty statistician on the Breast Cancer Committee of the Cancer and Leukemia Group B (CALGB)

MTCI is a Science Foundation Ireland funded Strategic Research Cluster

To reserve your place please contact:

Email: researchmanager@mtci.ie

Website: <http://www.mtci.ie>